Fifty Episodes of
"A FIGHT FOR MILLIONS"

There is always more excitement presenting around the office.
It isn't one thing, it is another.

Some folks ignorantly suppose that the collapse of independent is the regional establishment. It is not. The Government, and P. W. Galbraith, Universally, are the ones who are running as an Independent Liberal.

Both are men of good local heats.

Galbraith has made the mistake of playing politics, which is fatal in an agricultural province. He can't do anything but a bad job. He can't be fooled any longer. Any candidate who wants to represent the farmer's vote by shouting of beginning to end unmentionable Union Government press, and he is bound to come to grief.

Although a militant Conservative of many years' standing in this province, he has been compelled to admit in time to time that the present Government is the best he has seen.
Little more need be said.

The Opposition members, however, have really discovered nothing to fault with the Government. The legislation introduced and passed by the present provincial government.

The Eye Opener cannot find any error that will fit Premier Stewart's government, it is probably certain that one does not exist.

This government at Edmonton has three years of office in front of it.
It has done well, and will still do well. It will be well for the riding of Red Deer to be represented by a man who is entirely free from the cross-benches.

There being no regular Conservative candidate in the riding, makes it particularly likely as if Galbraith were running as a Unionist camouflaged as a Liberal. He would be in a position to make a sufficient number of Liberal and Conservative voters, and him himself would suggest his popularity of a fox-like nature.

But, as already mentioned, he is merely of furtive blemishes from the cross-benches.

There being no regular Conservative
ning as a Unionist camouflaged as
of a fox-like nature.

One of the minor reasons which have caused us to render what little assistance we can to the Red Deer people is the fact that the solid Jack, one of the very earliest living pioneers of the West, and a man who has opposed by both local papers, all joined together for this purpose. Galbraith is a popular, capable and honorable old-man. Red Deer's present solid standing as a prairie community, being operated by a man who is not big but is honest, and who does not appeal to our men sense at all. Not at all!

Were Gaetz a dull, commercial representative, he would be in a position on "oldtime" sentimental grounds, we could understand opposition to his knowledge of the man and of his family connections. But, the solid Jack, one of the very earliest living pioneers of
joined together for this purpose.

Red Deer's present solid standing
but is honest, and who does not appeal to our men sense at all. Not at all!

Jack Gaetz has been in the Red Deer district for thirty-three years, and is an awful long time in a new country.

The Stewart Government, of course, but a continuation of the Sifton Government, is the only difference that the present premier is a farmer.
Charlie Stewarts is a man whom nobody hates, and nobody loves him; while Sifton, on the other hand, cannily, presented a somewhat sinister figure to the popular imagination.
The Gaetz factor, however, is that he is a farmer, and that a farmer prime minister would be a good thing.

Still, the group of men who constituted the Sifton Government must have been fully aware of the legislation of a federal and whole some order. The women franchises and the like, were not far off at that. Some very practical legislation, the interests of the farming communities of Alberta, together with others appropriately come under the head of progressive legislation.

The Liberal

That man Gaetz stands high in the estimation of the educational share of the population, and the educational legislation of a federal and whole
that. Some very practical legislation, the interests of the farming communities
of Alberta, together with others
progressive legislation.

Again, this same Jack Gaetz must
that. Some very practical legislation, the interests of the farming communities
of Alberta, together with others
progressive legislation.

Of course he'll win, but it were well
to take no chances.

Galbraith, "the other fellow," runs for the seat of the riding of Red Deer.
His policy is to advocate the personal ambitions of the candidates rather than the political ambitions of the people.

And yet, with his own and the other local paper working feverishly and hysterically in his behalf, Galbraith is about to get beaten in the election.

For weeks on end that the propaganda they have been getting on the part of the Stewart Government, and the Gaetz campaign, pro-Galbraith, Jack Gaetz, the Government candidate, has no game.

He doesn't need one.

Leaving the personal phase of this campaign, she might perhaps settle the question of the future of the Government.

Surrounding farmers naturally take an interest in the election, and the results will be known in a few days.

It is a great, capable kind of farmer, one whose personal standings are high, and whose uniqueness is unique.

He is a man who is unimpeachable—and as they went to John Gaetz and told him he had to run.

to take no chances.

The 1917 Victory Loan made possible the advancing of $100,000,000 to finance the war. This sum was similarly advanced by Canada to help support our Allies. The amount will probably be kept EXACTLY at $100,000,000 larger than the original amount. The Imperial Munitions Board will, however, increase its supplies during the coming year than were originally intended.
